ARTICLE III: MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Classes and Eligibility.

The association shall have the following categories of membership:

(b) "Student" members who are engaged in full-time study in a nursing degree program and show evidence of student status shall pay dues at a reduced rate. These members may not seek election to the Board but may serve on committees/task forces. "Student" members who are registered nurses may vote.

Section 5. Termination of Membership

Membership in the Association shall be suspended or terminated if a member does not pay all required membership dues, in full, by the due date established by the Board of Directors, pursuant to procedures established by the Board of Directors. Membership in the Association also may be terminated by the death of a member, by the timely (as determined by the Board of Directors) submission of written notice of membership resignation or non-renewal, or by the failure of a member to continue to satisfy the relevant membership requirements. However, termination of membership shall not extinguish such members’ financial obligations, if any, as more fully described elsewhere in these Bylaws.

ARTICLE IV: MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

Section 1. Annual Meeting

An Annual Meeting of the members shall be held at the Association’s Annual Conference each year at a time and place selected by the Board of Directors for the purpose of installing directors, receiving reports of the Board of Directors and Committees, and transacting other business as may come before the meeting. In lieu of holding an annual meeting of members at a designated place, the Board of Directors may, in its sole discretion, determine that any annual meeting of members may be held solely by means of remote communication.

Section 2. Special Meeting

Special meetings of the members may be called either by the President or a quorum of the Board of Directors, or by not less than one-half of the members having voting rights.

Section 3. Notice of Meetings

(a) Notices of meetings of the members shall state the place, if any, date, and hour of the meeting, and the means of remote communication, if any, by which members may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such meeting. In the case of a special meeting, the notice shall state the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. No business other than that specified in the notice thereof shall be transacted at any special meeting. Notice to members may be given in writing or by electronic transmission as permitted by subsection (b) of this Section. If given in writing, notice may be delivered personally or by mailing such notice in a postage prepaid envelope directed to each member at such member's address as it appears in the records of the Association. Notice shall be given to each member entitled to vote at such meeting not fewer than ten days or more than sixty days before the date of the meeting. Any member may waive notice of any meeting.

(b) Any notice to members given by the Association shall be effective if given by a form of electronic transmission to which the member to whom the notice is given has consented. Notice given pursuant to this subsection shall be deemed given: (1) if by facsimile telecommunication, when directed to a number at which the member has consented to receive notice; (2) if by electronic mail, when directed to an electronic mail address at which the member has consented to receive notice; (3) if by posting on an electronic network together with separate notice to the member of such specific posting, upon the later of (a) such posting and (b) the giving of such separate notice; and (4) if by any other form of electronic transmission, when directed to the member.

Section 4. Quorum

At least ten percent (10%) of the members having voting power shall be present or represented by proxy at any properly called meeting in order to constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business at such meeting.

Section 5. Chairman

The President shall preside as Chairman at all meetings of the voting membership. In the absence of the President from any meeting of the voting members, the President-Elect shall serve as temporary Chairman.

Section 6. Manner of Acting

When a quorum is present, the vote of a majority of the voting members present at a meeting or represented by proxy shall be the act of the voting membership, unless as otherwise provided by law, by the Association's Articles of Incorporation, or by these Bylaws, a different vote is required or permitted, in which case express provision shall govern and control the decision of the question.

Section 7. List of Members Entitled to Vote. At least ten (10) days before each meeting of members, the officer in charge of the member ledger of the Association shall prepare a complete list of the members entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order and showing the address of each member. The Association shall not be required to include electronic mail addresses or other electronic contact information on such list. Such list shall be open to the examination of any member, for any purpose germane to the meeting for a period of at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting: (a) on a reasonably accessible electronic network, provided that the information required to gain access to such list is provided with the notice of the meeting, or (b) during ordinary business hours, at the principal place of business of the Association. If the meeting is to be held at a place, then the list shall be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time of the meeting and may be inspected by any member present. If the meeting is to be held solely by means of remote communication, then the list shall also be open to the examination of any member during the whole time of the meeting on a reasonably accessible electronic network, and the information required to access the list shall be provided with the notice of the meeting.

Section 8. Remote Communication.

If authorized by the Board of Directors in its sole discretion, and subject to such guidelines and procedures as the Board of Directors may adopt, members may, by means of remote communication, participate in a meeting of the membership and be deemed present in person and vote whether such meeting is held at a designated place or solely by means of remote communication. Such members or their proxy holders shall be given a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting and to vote on matters submitted to the members, including an opportunity to read or hear the proceedings of the meeting substantially concurrently with such proceedings. Any meeting conducted by means of remote communication shall be subject to the same quorum and notice requirements as a meeting held in person.

Section 9. Action by Written Ballot.

Any action required to be taken at a meeting of the voting members or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the voting members may be taken by written ballot without a meeting if the Association delivers a written ballot to every member entitled to vote on the matter. Written ballots shall be sent to the membership via U.S. Mail, postage prepaid, or by a form of electronic transmission to which the member to whom the ballot is given has consented. A written ballot shall: (1) set forth each proposed action; and (2) provide an opportunity to vote for or against each proposed action. For action by written ballot without a meeting to be valid, in all matters other than election of Directors, an affirmative vote of a majority of all members entitled to vote is required. For election of Directors, an affirmative vote of a plurality of all members entitled to vote is required. Each written ballot submitted to the Association shall be signed and dated by the voting member. Any ballot submitted by a member to the Association via electronic transmission shall be deemed to be written, signed and dated for purposes of this Section, as of the date on which such ballot is transmitted.
