WHY EXHIBIT AT THE APNA ANNUAL CONFERENCE?

Connect with psychiatric-mental health nurses from across country and beyond in Columbus, Ohio! As an APNA Annual Conference exhibitor, you will gain visibility and exposure at the largest annual gathering in North America of psychiatric-mental health nurses and related specialists. From advanced practice nurse prescribers to nurses on the inpatient hospital floor, the Annual Conference draws more than 1,500 attendees who influence or deliver care to patients across the lifespan and in a variety of settings – including outpatient/administration, community, inpatient hospital, and academic settings.

Attendees come to the APNA Annual Conference for comprehensive continuing education that enables them to provide the best possible care to their patients and advance psychiatric-mental health nursing. Conference attendees will present and learn new evidence-based techniques, critical updates, as well as the latest, most effective products, services, training and best practices in psychiatric-mental health care.

APNA is committed to facilitating and supporting dynamic interaction and participation among conference attendees, presenters, and exhibitors. By exhibiting at the APNA Annual Conference your organization will benefit from opportunities to:

- Network with 1,500+ psychiatric-mental health nursing professionals.
- Generate qualified leads, conduct market research and gain valuable industry knowledge.
- Leverage 3.5+ unopposed exhibit hall hours that include snack and beverage breaks.
- Expose your brand to decision-makers, influencers, and specialists who provide mental health care.

“As a leader in a large organization representing psychiatric practices, I will bring innovative solutions to our leadership for considerations in current and future strategic planning.”

Falls Church, VA 22042

Please note that APNA is unable to accept purchase orders for exhibit space or marketing opportunities.

All products and services exhibited at the APNA conference shall be directly related to the APNA mission and must be of professional or educational benefit or interest to conference participants.

- APNA reserves the right to determine the eligibility of prospective exhibitors for inclusion in its exposition. Eligibility will be determined following receipt of an Exhibit Space Application/Contract and prior to booth assignment. Additionally, APNA reserves the right to reject or require on-site modification of any display or demonstration that, at APNA’s sole discretion, is not in keeping with the character of the APNA exhibition.

- All decorations, drapery and fabrics used in exhibit displays must be flame retardant.

- No exhibitor shall sublet, assign or share any part of the space allocated to his or her organization without prior written consent from APNA.

- The rules and privileges of any exhibitor shall not be infringed upon by any other exhibitor. No booth may obstruct exhibition attendees’ views of adjacent booths from any angle. Booth activities that cause attendees to congregate in the aisles and impede or restrict traffic are forbidden. All displays, signs, flyers, distribution of literature and souvenirs, entertainment or any other activities must take place inside the contracted booth space only.

- Exhibits including audio and/or video devices must be conducted and arranged so that no noise will disturb adjacent exhibitors or attendees. APNA reserves the right to prohibit the use of amplifying devices that it considers objectionable.

- All exhibiting organizations canceling space will be charged a $500 processing fee, and no refunds will be issued for exhibit space cancellations received after June 1, 2018.

- No cash transactions will be permitted on the exhibit floor. The displaying or quoting of inflated list prices on merchandise exhibited will also not be permitted.

- Advertising material or signage of companies other than those that have paid for exhibit space are prohibited. Canvassing and solicitation of business or other conferences are strictly prohibited. APNA will appreciate being informed of any infraction of this rule.

- All questionnaires and giveaways must have prior approval by APNA. Samples of proposed questionnaires and/or giveaways must be submitted to APNA by September 17, 2018.

- The common area of the exhibit hall will be erected, furnished and dismantled by the official APNA General Service Contractor as part of this contract. All shipments of exhibit materials must be made through drayage to the General Service Contractor, according to the stipulations provided by APNA, and all related shipping costs will be charged to the exhibitor.

- Exhibitors using service contractors other than those designated by APNA must obtain approval in advance from APNA. A written request must be presented by the exhibitor or the contractor at least 30 days in advance of exhibit set-up and must include the name and address of the contractor, name of the on-site supervisor in attendance, a certificate of insurance and a statement that the contractor will comply with all rules and regulations of the APNA exhibition.

- The exhibitor agrees to adhere to and be bound by all applicable fire, utility and building-code regulations at the exhibition facility. The exhibitor also agrees to the contract and terms between the facility (managers and owners), APNA and other parties relating to the exhibit. The exhibitor shall not deface or damage the exhibition facility or exhibit area in any way.

- It is the responsibility of the exhibiting organization to be compliant with the rules and regulations of the exhibit facility (convention center, hotel, etc.).

- Insurance and liability are the full and sole responsibility of the exhibitor. This contract shall not constitute or be considered a partnership, joint venture or agency between APNA and the exhibitor.

- Each exhibitor agrees to protect, save and hold the American Psychiatric Nurses Association (APNA), Phoenix Convention Center and APNA’s General Service Contractor, as well as all of these entities owners, agents, contractors and employees (hereinafter collectively called indemnities) forever harmless for any damages or charges imposed for violations of any law or ordinance, whether occasioned by the negligence of the exhibitor or those holding under the exhibitor. Further, each exhibitor shall, at all times, protect, indemnify, save and hold harmless indemnities against and from any and all the losses, costs (including attorneys’ fees), damage, liability or expenses arising from or out of, or by reason of, any accident or bodily injury or other occurrence to any person or persons, including the exhibitor, its agents, employees and business invitees, which arise from or out of, or by reason of said exhibitor’s occupancy and use of the exhibition premise or a part thereof.

- No pets or animals shall be permitted in the exhibit hall, with the exception of service animals for persons with disabilities.

- No live demonstrations are permitted in the exhibit hall (including volunteers, contracted or otherwise).

- Each exhibit must be open during all official show hours. Exhibiting organizations that do not adhere to this strict APNA policy may not be eligible to exhibit at future APNA exhibitions.

- In the event of cancellation due to acts of God, fire, strike, government regulations or other causes beyond the control of the parties to the agreement, APNA will refund that portion of exhibitor fees that it deems consistent with the expenditures and commitments already made.

- Unethical conduct or disregard for any rules stated herein, on the part of an exhibitor, his or her representatives or both will be considered just reason for APNA to dismiss the exhibitor, his or her representatives or both from the exhibit hall and to prohibit the exhibitor from attending future APNA conferences. In this event, it is agreed that no refund shall be made by APNA and that no demand for redress will be made by either the exhibitor or his or her representatives.

- Exhibitors are responsible for and shall adhere to the Food and Drug Administration regulations on the promotion of investigational and pre approved drugs and devices. For further information on FDA compliance, visit the FDA’s website: www.fda.gov.
